BILL OF RIGHTS

Per Minnesota Rules 7200.2905 (CLIENT WELFARE), consumers of psychological services have the right to the following:

- A. To expect that the provider has met the minimum qualifications of education, training, and experience required by state law for licensure;
- B. To examine public records maintained by the Board of Psychology that contain the credentials of the provider;
- C. To report complaints to the Board of Psychology;
- D. To be informed of the cost of professional services before receiving the services;
- E. To privacy as defined and limited by rule and law;
- F. To be free from being the object of unlawful discrimination while receiving psychological services;
- G. To have access to their records as provided in Minnesota Statutes, sections 144.291 to 144.298, except as otherwise provided by law or a prior written agreement;
- H. To be free from exploitation for the benefit or advantage of the provider;
- I. To terminate services at any time, except as otherwise provided by law or court order;
- J. To know the intended recipients of psychological assessment results;
- K. To withdraw consent to release assessment results, unless that right is prohibited by law or court order or is waived by prior written agreement;
- L. To a nontechnical description of assessment procedures; and
- M. To a nontechnical explanation and interpretation of assessment results, unless that right is prohibited by law or court order or is waived by prior written agreement.
